Dutton left for the Army Monday, to the loss of the Department. The runner-up trophy went to Kenny Stair. In recognition of his long years of devoted service, a Life Membership in the Department was presented to J. Paul Williams. This is the highest type of membership in the Department and is awarded only to an active member in good standing by vote of the entire Department.

This year the Greenbelt Womens Club presented the Rescue Squad with a set of plastic air splints. Earlier, they had donated a pair of crutches to the department. Within the department, the men presented Chief Dutton with a braided hat. The junior and junior associate members gave the department a Scott Water Pack which is a special vacuum cleaner to clean up water and debris after a fire. The Ladies Auxiliary presented the men with a check for $200 and a Salvage Master Water Pack for the other fire truck. T. Galifaro received a set of khakis from the junior members he trained. Funny gift of the year went to Jack Snoddy who is leaving for Okinawa - a gift-wrapped jelly bread sandwich with a smell of peanut butter.

No New Development In High School Crisis

No additional developments were reported on the senior high school crisis at last Monday's meeting. The channels are still open between the city council and the developer Charles Bresler, but at the moment there seems to be no basis for settlement.

The ingredients of the proposal put forward by Bresler on March 1 remain unchanged. The developer would make the Beltway-Lake site available for a senior high school provided the city supported R-30 (apartment) zoning in parcels 1 and 2, picked up the tab for 5 acres of open space at the Beltway-Lake site, and donated the 5-acre city sanitary landfill site for other school use.

In addition, Greenbelt Homes, Inc., would be asked to make available 10 acres of GHI-owned land for an elementary school site. Bresler also would extend to the city an option to purchase 15 acres on parcels 11 and 12 north of Greenbelt Lake for parkland.

GHI officials have indicated no disposition to participate in the proposal, since their major concern is to keep the density of parcels 1 and 2 to a level something below R-30 zoning.

The council asked the city's Advisory Planning Board to review the city's land use plan for parcels 1 and 2, considering the proposed school complex, open space needs, and density. Councilman David Champion proposed this step in anticipation of zoning applications that Bresler is expected to file as soon as the school site question is settled.

In view of the impasse, Mrs. Hedy Anderson of Gardenway, inquired whether the school board had considered any sites other than the Beltway-Lake site and the Parcel 2 site. She suggested that the school board investigate some of the government-owned land in the area.

The Police Blotter

Two cases of accidental poisoning were reported recently. An 18 month old boy swallowed 50 baby aspirins. In the other case a young man at a dinner jokingly grabbed a glass off the bar thinking it was someone else's drink; he took a swallow of sanitizing solution. Both young men survived.

Chief Lane urges all parents to warn their children against accepting rides with strangers and asks that youngsters take down the license number of anyone attempting to pick them up. Several attempted pick-ups were made this week, fortunately with no ill results. A 63 year old man was apprehended when a crossing guard at Greenbelt J.H.S. noticed him picking up a neighborhood boy. A call to the boy's parents revealed that he had been driven home without harm. Several girls have reported attempted pick-ups by people asking for directions. Two recent pick-up attempts have also involved attempted or actual indecent exposure within the past week on Northway and Woodland Way.

Two stolen cars were recovered this week. One was used for joy riding. The other car, along with the thief, was recovered by Officer Paul Reamy. Reamy noticed the unauthorized driver having trouble with the car some distance from where the car was normally parked. Knowing that the driver had a past record of stealing cars, he asked for registration papers which were not produced.

Lions Club to Hear Sabin

Members of the Greenbelt Lions Club are looking forward to having Lou Sabin, Head Coach of the Univ. of Md. football team, as a guest at their regularly scheduled meeting on Monday, March 14, at the Greenbelt American Legion Post Home on Greenbelt Road.

Sabin had an impressive record both as a player and as a coach. In his sophomore year at the Univ. of Indiana he was team captain and most valuable player, as well as the Big Ten shot-put champion for 1942. After service with the O.S.S. he played for and captained the Cleveland Browns from 1946-49, being all-League linebacker. As a climax to nine years of college coaching, in 1959 he had a 9-win, no-loss season at Western Illinois Univ. After two years as head coach of the Boston Patriots, Lou became head coach of the Buffalo Bills, who tied for the Eastern Division Championship in 1963 and won the A.F.L. Championship in '64 and '65. Sabin was selected Coach of the Year for both of those years.

The public is invited to attend at 8 p.m. to hear Coach Sabin speak on the prospects of the Maryland team for the coming season.

HIGH POINT SCIENCE FAIR

The Science Fair of the High Point Senior High School will be open to the public on Saturday, March 12, from 1 to 9:30 p.m., and on Sunday, March 13, from 1 to 5 p.m. The fair will be held in the cafeteria of the high school building.

Council Studies Problem Of Springhill Lake Traffic

by Al Skolnik

The problem of traffic circulation at the Springhill Lake development occupied a major part of council's attention at its Monday, March 7, regular meeting. Residents of Springhill Lake, led by Robert Foley and Zalman Altschuler, complained that it took 25-30 minutes to get out of the development during morning rush hours. They also expressed concern about police and fire safety since there was only one exit and entrance to the project.

City manager James Giese outlined the steps the city is taking to ease the traffic flow. Negotiations are now under way, he said, to provide additional exits and entrances and he is optimistic that they will bear fruit by the summer. The proposed new roads would exit adjacent to the Beltway Plaza. Meetings have been held with the owners of Springhill Lake, and officials of the Maryland National Capital Park and Planning Commission and the State Roads Commission.

Foley and Altschuler suggested that, in the interim, the city should take steps to speed the flow of morning traffic from the development on to Greenbelt Road. Foley suggested assignment of a police officer during rush hours to let the traffic run continuously through several lights. Altschuler suggested a recycling of traffic lights so as to provide longer green light time during the morning rush hours.

City Councilmen Dave Champion

and Dick Pilski explained that the city is somewhat limited in what it can do. The lights are under SRC jurisdiction and major responsibility rests with the developer to construct the roads.

At Giese's suggestion, council approved a motion requesting MNCPPC to make a traffic study of the total needs for streets, within Springhill Lake. At present Giese said, there is much confusion. He noted that pending before MNCPPC is a subdivision plan for Springhill Lake on the northern side of the Capital Beltway which provides for no public roads whatever.

Giese also cited the difference of opinion surrounding the need for a bridge across the Beltway connecting Springhill Lake with the rest of Greenbelt. The SRC has recently withdrawn money from next year's budget for this item.

GHI Parking

Introduced for first reading was an ordinance repealing the authority of the city to assign parking spaces in GHI courts. The city had received an opinion from its solicitor Thomas Brooks to the effect that city assignment of parking amounts to diverting public property for private use.

According to Brooks, the question of whether the GHI courts are public or private property is fairly debatable. In either event, however, it was his opinion that the city lacks authority to assign parking spaces. If the service courts are the private property of GHI, then the city lacks jurisdiction and if the service courts are public property, then the city is using its powers to promote a private purpose.

Delinquent Accounts

Also introduced for first reading was an ordinance providing for delinquent charges in connection with refuse collection. A penalty of $1 for accounts remaining unpaid 30 days after submission of bills and discontinuance of service after 60 days delinquency are provided for.

Upon Pilski's motion, the council voted to open council meetings with the pledge of allegiance to the American flag. Pilski also suggested including a prayer in the opening ceremonies. This will be considered at the next council meeting.

Giese introduced to the council his new administrative aide, Michael Fischetti. Fischetti, a native of Brooklyn, is a recent graduate of the University of Maryland and is now attending the graduate school of government and public administration.

Reappointed to the Community Relations Board were the Reverend Edward H. Birner and Mrs. Rose Amberg.

City Notes

Two personnel changes have taken place on the municipal administrative staff within the last two weeks. Newly hired as part-time assistant to City Manager James K. Giese is Michael Fischetti, a graduate student in the Dept. of Government and Politics at the U. of Md. A native of New York, Fischetti served in the U. S. Army for three years. He is a graduate of the Columbian Preparatory School in Washington and of the U. of Md. He is single. Fischetti will spend more than half time on his city responsibilities, increasing that load later as he completes his graduate program.

The other change in personnel came about with the resignation, effective Feb. 25, of Mrs. Margaret Perdue, clerk receptionist at the police desk. She resigned to take other employment. Currently her position is being filled by Mrs. Pauline Bordas, who has worked previously as relief dispatcher.

A vacation in balmy Hawaii was the pleasant experience of Greenbelt's city manager. Between Feb. 11 - 28, Giese visited his brother and several distant relatives who reside there.

MODERN MATH EXPLAINED

On Wednesday, March 16 at 8 p.m., North End PTA will sponsor a special meeting concerning the problems of modern math. The speaker who would have been our guest at the February meeting has been contacted and will be with us to answer questions of perplexed and confused parents. All interested persons throughout the community are welcome.

A Salute to Twin Pines

A million dollars! A million good wishes!

When the millionth dollar was placed on deposit last month with Twin Pines Savings and Loan Association, it was the most tangible evidence of the esteem and respect with which that financial institution has come to be regarded in this community.

Twin Pines began operating, amid considerable scepticism, less than ten years ago. However, its steady growth and its financial viability soon converted the sceptics. Many of these later joined it and helped swell its membership.

Through dedication to community service Twin Pines carved a unique niche in the hearts of Greenbelters. Early in its career, it sponsored a series of meetings on the co-op movement. Through art exhibits it has stimulated community interest in the graphic arts. It originated the Greenbelt Travel Club, assumed leadership in the community's developing interest in elderly housing, and began the first local "Trick or Treat for Unicef" campaign. When the Co-op food store burned out a few years ago, Twin Pines shared its premises with the Co-op pharmacy until the store was rebuilt. Its role as a depository for contributions to this newspaper is just one out of many other community services.

Our congratulations on this million dollar achievement of a sister cooperative!

Building Our Confidence

To the Editor:

On behalf of the students of Greenbelt Junior High School, I should like to thank you for the recognition which you accorded us in the last issue of the Greenbelt News Review commending our 15th Annual Science Fair held on Feb. 18 and 19.

The fair, which is held once each year, gives each student in the school a chance to display and present his scientific ability in the way of a project in the field of his choice. A lot of time and hard work went into not only the projects but the detailed planning of the fair itself. We are proud that it was such a success. So often the students feel that the less than 5 per cent of the teen-agers - the juvenile delinquents - are portrayed vividly in the press; yet the other 95 per cent - the average and above average teenagers - rarely have their story told.

Your interest and concern in the activities of our school is greatly appreciated. You are building the confidence of today's youth - tomorrow's adults.

Cindy Depew, Pres. Student Council of Greenbelt Jr. H. S.

Breakthrough

Religion concerns itself with man's everyday problems. We call this church involvement in man's life a sense of mission. But even everyday problems change. So the church involves itself in a changing missionary program.

In the United Church of Christ our current missionary program is called BREAKTHROUGH. Here are some of the problems BREAKTHROUGH funds will be tackling . . .

- Nationwide consultations among church, real estate, financial and civic planning organizations to provide adequate housing and develop fair housing practices.
- A training program for laymen and ministers to prepare them to work as spiritual consultants in offices and factories.
- A $10,000,000 emergency fund for Africa to provide refugee aid, technical assistance and education.
- New inter-denominational college campus ministries to students and faculty in state, community and junior colleges.
- A community relations service for Spanish-speaking persons and Indians to help them solve their own problems themselves.
- A large-scale educational program for church members to enlist them in a drive for world peace.
- Metropolitan mission centers to work at urban renewal, jobs for disadvantaged youths, better housing, citizenship education, improved schools and political reform.
- Increased opportunity for college and graduate study for youth of minority groups.
- Rallying of church resources to help eliminate poverty.
- Improved overseas medical missions to raise health standards, while checking runaway population growth.
- Support of civil rights law enforcement, integrated quality education, equal job opportunities and similar efforts to achieve racial justice.
- Upgrading of health and welfare institutions to provide modern and efficient facilities with Christian concern for individual needs.
- Training leadership for developing nations by providing educational facilities, teachers and scholarships for overseas study.
- Seeking improvement in TV programs on both cultural and ethical levels.

Church Visitation Program Planned

Next Sunday 28 men of the Greenbelt Community Church will begin a program of visitation, seeking pledges for the work of the Church during the coming year. They will be seeking financial resources for a full time Director of Christian Education, increased staff salaries, and increased giving to ministries around the world in a program entitled "Breakthrough." The church, in its 28th year, seeks to minister more adequately to our expanding community. Last Sunday the men were together to hear the Rev. Warren Hilfiker, Central Atlantic Conference Minister, for the United Church of Christ, and will be consecrated for their work at the morning service next Sunday.

DAV Launches Nationwide Bumper Sticker Campaign Backing Viet Nam Fighting Men

The DAV's campaign supporting servicemen in Viet Nam is the first of any large national veterans' organizations, and is aimed with a two-pronged approach to answer the protesters of the Viet Nam Conflict.

The bumper stickers on the cars will prove to American fighting men that the people at home do support their action.

Commenting on the campaign's purpose, DAV National Commander Claude L. Callegary pointed out: "We don't disagree with the right to protest, but we violently disagree with the ideas behind the protests."

A letter from Commander Callegary explains the DAV program:

"Somewhere in the hot grass battlefield of Viet Nam, a combat-weary young man looks home to America . . . and wonders if anyone cares.

"Today, this brave young man needs your loyal moral support of the patriotic contribution he is making to preserve freedom in Asia . . . and throughout the entire world. Tomorrow, this same young man may need the help and support of of the Disabled American Veterans, a non-profit organization chartered by Act of Congress to serve all wartime disabled veterans.

"This is why DAV believes it is every American's responsibility to show our fighting men in Viet Nam that somebody does indeed care. We hope you will join us in this belief.
